

Hey, everyone!

You're just in time to join Apple and me as we film our very first Apple Jacks™ video!

You said it, Cinnamon! Today we're treating all you hungry fans to a tour of our super cool house. It's where we eat, sleep, and best of all, play! Ready? Let's go!

I love that Apple does the dishes. But sometimes he forgets to put the spoons back, and I can't eat breakfast without one! Can you find all 8 spoons around the kitchen?

I know, I'm "in-core-igible." But he's gotta give me credit for making an effort, right guys?

Here's my room! Isn't my custom wallpaper amaaaazing? Solve the maze on the wall to find the way out of my messy room! Then we can make like an apple tree and leave!

This is where I usually school Cinnamon in the newest video games! To sweeten the deal, the winner gets Apple Jacks® Jumbo Snax™! Let's hear it for Team Apple!

Oh, it's on now! Hold up—is there a glitch in the game? Our screens look different! Can you spot 10 details that don't match?

Apple hid some of my travel pictures as a joke. Such a funny dude! No worries... you guys can help! Search the house for my 5 missing pics!

For the grand finale, meet our new rescue pet T-Rex, Tiny! So far, the only trick she's learned is running to the table when she smells Apple Jacks® cereal! What a good girl!

Apple & Cinnamon were Here!

That's a wrap, guys!

Thanks for visiting! We loved showing you our place and hope you stop by again soon!
